

naughty little walnut (kibirli ceviz) m: philipp moosbrugger, erwin schober, fatima spar w: fatima spar

you always get your way and give yourself away
you keep deceiving
and betraying us i will eat you sooner or later you drive me insane

i can't digest you
you make me furious

you cheeky
naughty little walnut bite by bite i'll crack the cheeky little walnut open you cheeky little headstrong walnut you playful little lovely walnut give in to your destiny no use in holding on all you are looking for is here with me, you see give in my naughty little one

in your heart you already broke my will my fervent love for you has made me lose my mind if only i cracked you open and ate... but won't you upset my stomach?

even though i've had enough not that i got a bite of you i'll swallow some antacid and it'll pass that will be the end to your little adventure in me.
