old age is creeping upon you
it's too late to give in and part u-turn' can't escape
you lost it all that day' your vice came your...

double or quits
go on and risk
you get a thrill
your nerves shrill

double your stake
don't give up
now is not the time to stop

don't be a saver
better spend your bucks disaster is looming
you will go bust

double your stake
don't give up

two shifts a day
to settle his debts
his master plan
is to quit again

double your stake
don't give up

his wife
is full of worries and misery his exhausted phrases
are all empty

double your stake
don't give up

endless' heavy
tiring talks
violence is his last resort

double your stake
don't give up

desperate and hunted
he sold his soul
all alone marching
way down in the hole

double your stake

you lost it all that day' your vice came your way
